Rep. Mary Jeanette Murray (R-Cohasset) recently signed the TAX-AX petition which would cut the state income tax by $318 million. It would also repeal the 7.5 per cent surtax on income. Murray was one of the 10 top signers of the TAX-AX petition. The petition will be placed on the calendar of the 1980 legislative session after 62,000 signatures have been gathered by this December. If the legislature fails to pass the petition, an additional 11,000 signatures will be gathered next summer for the petition question to be placed on the 1980 ballot as a binding question.

Sacred Music

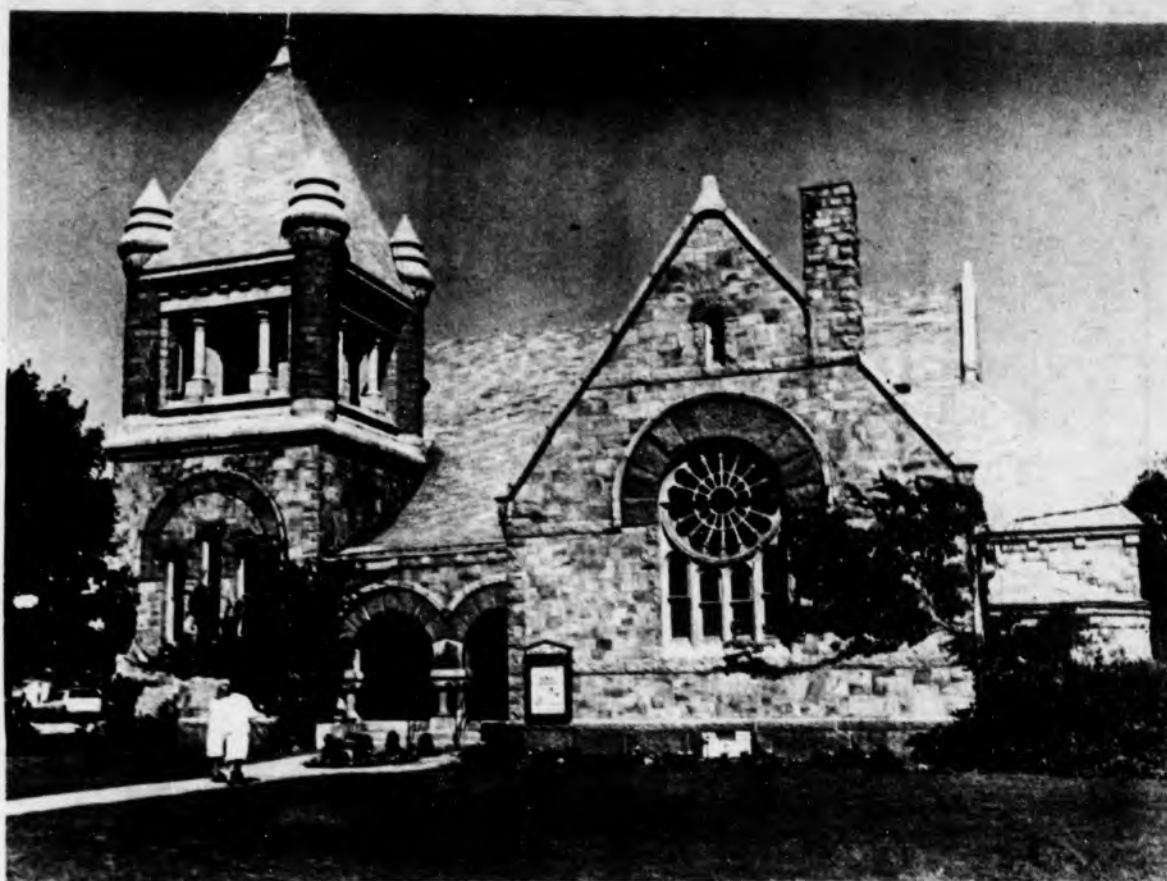

The Mansion Heirs of East Wareham will present a concert of sacred music Sunday, Sept. 16, at 11 a.m. in the Community Church of the Nazarene, Jerusalem Road, North Cohasset.

The southern-style Gospel music selections will be signed for the deaf.

The group from East Wareham Evangelical United Methodist Church will also sing during the Sunday school hour at 10.

Members are Grace Perry, pianist and vocalist; Tom Perry, bass guitar and vocalist; Paul and Ruth Lombard, vocalists; John Perry and Faith Haraala, vocalists; and Bob Souza, drums. The Lombard children, Kristi, Tammy and Brian will also sing. Debbie Perry will use hand signals for the deaf.

POPE MEMORIAL CHURCH

junior high school mathematics teacher and soccer coach at Broadmeadows, Quincy.

He likes both the church and teaching...but says he is a man who knows his limitations. "There are things that I do well, and other things I don't do well. I'm not well organized. I'm not an administrator. One thing I believe in is disorganization; it gets me a lot of situations I have fun in."

Rev. Newell combined both pastoring and teaching from the very start. When he was pastoring a little church in Zelienople, Pa., he became acquainted with the family of a boy who had damaged his nervous system as the result of an accident and could no longer attend school.

"The school superintendent told me he'd get a good home teacher for the boy as soon as he could find one. I kept pushing him. One day he came up to me all smiles. He said - I've found somebody. I asked who. And he said - you."

And from then on, Rev. Newell got hooked on both teaching and preaching. Oh, occasionally he thought he was at a church to stay, "Then more kids happened and I had to get a job. I never quite made it full time."

Both Rev. Newell and his wife, Dorothy, night city editor at The Patriot Ledger, were born and raised in Farringdale, N.Y. "All those potato fields are now known as Levittown," he said.

He and his wife raised five boys. "Bossy women have boys," and Mrs. Newell does have something to say about his sermons. "Dorothy says it's a good sermon if I preach it. If I preach it in 10 minutes it's a better one. If I preach it in five minutes - that's the best."

Nazarenes are basically Methodists, only Nazarenes have taken the precepts of John Wesley on holiness, who believed: you were saved; at a later date you are sanctified.

"He (Wesley) came as a missionary to Georgia. He was a complete failure and run out of Georgia because he stirred up the Indians and wouldn't marry the governor's daughter."

Methodists are very formal. "I'm very informal."

What does he do to make a church grow? "I don't do anything, really. Mostly it's the people who want their church to grow. What really splits a church is when adults and youth are separated. We have

Bible study groups - it might be a geographical group, a group of women or men, who meet for breakfast because they have the same kind of time.

"I don't provide a special activity for youth. Everybody goes to Sunday School. I wouldn't force you to, that's just what I would prefer you to do."

One of my secrets is we're going to have special Sunday night vesper service, sing hymns, then everybody will read a favorite poem. And I do have a lot of special music, like the Mansionheirs."

"By the way, we need a piano player - no pay-but lots of good company. And we have a tremendous pipe organ, and no one to play."

The Pope Memorial Church was built by Albert Pope, a Bostonian, who imported Pope automobiles from England. It was built for the sum of $200,000 in 1900 in memory of Pope's son who drowned in Straits Pond.

Rev. Newell is assisted at the church by Rev. Hoy Richards of Melrose and Bob Weiss of Braintree. Both men will have a preaching, teaching and visitation ministry.

Jam, Jelly Time At Community Center

Jean Turner will direct her talents to jams and jellies in the community center's new kitchen on Thursday, September 20 from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m.

Demonstrated will be the three stages of old-fashioned grape jelly making, and the preparation of a special tomato jelly which can be used for Christmas giving.

There will be samples and recipes galore, and each participant will take home a jar of jelly.

Stir up some fun and meet some new friends. Call 383-0088.

AEROBIC DANCE

The class will meet at the center from 9:30 to 10:30

Monday, Wednesday and Friday under the instruction of Joanne Shephard. Call the center for details as it was incorrectly listed in the mailed program.

This new fitness program is designed to promote cardiovascular fitness through a gradual running program, achieving aerobic efficiency. The 30-minute exercise workout is applied to music.

NURSERY SCHOOL

Sandra Putnam, director of the CCC Nursery School announced a full enrollment for the three and four year olds, with the school to begin Monday, September 17.
